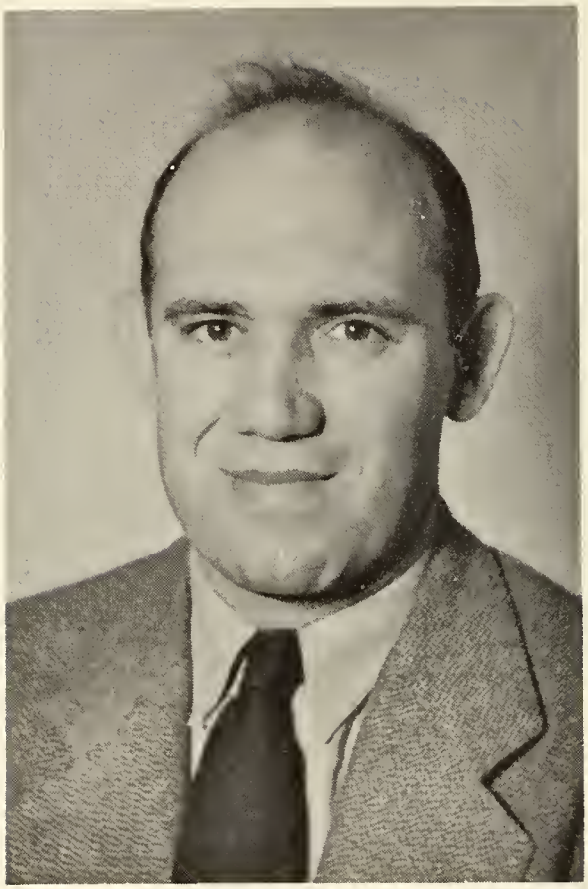
Our School

Another year has quickly passed and now, as Seniors, the task of putting out the school annual has fallen upon our shoulders. This indeed was not an unpleasant task, but as news, pictures and other material was collected and the construction began, we realize that much hard work and worry were involved.

We have striven, in the following pages to make this annual a sort of school memory and history book combined. The degree of our successfulness will be measured by the degree of your enjoyment.



MR. ROBERT GAMES

Four amazingly short years ago, this year's graduating class was a bewildered bunch of green freshies. Mr. Games was also new in our high school and unaware of the possible consequences accepted the appointment as sponsor of the Freshman Class. The first year must not have proved too exasperating to him for again the next year he answered to the title of Sophomore sponsor. We felt very proud to have such a capable and amiable advisor and when he led us through our Junior year with its play, reception, paper drives and other activities without collapsing, we were quite certain he could withstand the next year. This he has done to perfection.

We dedicate this years "Willow" as an attempt to try and express to him our appreciation for his four years of untiring guidance.

COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT

MR. R. G. BRAND

In the Fall of '46, after the death of M. J. Morrison, prominent citizen and former school superintendent at Willshire, Mr. R. G. Brand of Ohio City was appointed as his successor.

He received his Bachelor's Degree from Heidelbery University and his Master's Degree from Bowling Green State University.

School Board

President----------Russell Byer
Vice-President---------Orville Hoblet
Clerk----------Mrs. F. M. Cox

In every school there must be some group to manage the school's operation. Ours is no exception, and we are very fortunate to have such a capable board of public spirited men.

Obviously, most of us realize too little the importance of the job these men have to perform. We may seem too uninterested in their duties but we take this opportunity to commend them on their fine work during the past school year.

Senior History

In the year 1938, twenty-five glowing, yet bashful first graders started on their road to education. Everything looked so strange, but the strangest part of it all was the fact that our small vocabulary which we had strived so hard to learn was NOT to be used during school time. But with the patient help of Miss Nieferd we were taught, and tried very hard to learn our a,b,c's, numbers etc., which then made us eligible for the second grade where we were earnestly taught by Miss Eicher. There our main tasks were reading, writing and arithmetic. With the second grade duties accomplished we dashed into the third grade where we were greeted by Miss Dudgeon, our teacher for the following year, which was spent struggling with our multiplication tables. We then happily marched into the fourth grade where we took up several new subjects under the supervision of Mr. Sipe and Mr. Edwards. In the fifth grade we were privilaged to again have Miss Eicher as our teacher. The sixth grade was spent with Mr. Sipe and Mr. Edwards as our teachers. In the following two years Mrs. Fisher and Mr. Sipe gave us our much needed knowledge to enter high school. Confidentially, after we mastered algebra we felt quite advanced in education. We were all beaming with pride the night we got our eighth grade diplomas, "that is till we stumbled up and down the steps and made several other embarrassing blunders." It was then we realized that there was room for more knowledge, which we strived to get in our next four years of schooling.

Next we were introduced to everyone as the Green Freshman, "and just between you and me, we really felt green, especially when the Seniors of 1947 set a day aside just for us." Weren't we all a sight?; the girls with their bib overalls on wrong side out and backwards and the boys came attired in their "nighties" ! But after that treacherous day, we were once again back to studying. In our Sophomore year we sold candy at noon to expand our treasury. We were kept extremly busy in our Junior year---First we had the play "Three's A Crowd". We learned then the enjoyment and fright of giving a play. We were kept busy the rest of the year selling pins, pencils, and a paper drive. We also took a three day trip to some of the historical spots in Ohio. It proved to be both enjoyable and educational. Most of all we were kept busy with our lessons for we all know that the higher you go the harder it gets.

"Ah! ! Seniors at last", were the words with which began the year. As the year crept by we realized that we would soon be saying good-by for the last time to our good old Alma Mater, "Which isn't so bad after all". We're all looking forward to our trip to Washington, D. C. at the close of our school year.

There are three boys and five girls who have attended all twelve years at Willshire. They are Donald Caffee, Gerald Hoblet, Gene Beinz, Peggy Clouse, Susie Cowan, Clara Rose Gribler, Martha Schaffner and Bonnie Brasher.

We all consider ourselves very fortunate in being able to have Mr. Games as our sponsor all four years. We earnestly want to thank him for all he has done for us, for he has spent many strenuous hours with us.

Senior Class Prophecy

It was on an October evening in 1960 that I happened to tune in on our radio and dialed to station P.D.Q., and the voice that came over the air seemed very familiar, so I continued listening, and who do you think it was? None other than Edward Huston announcing the Mystery Melody program. This gave me a big thrill, so I settled back in my easy chair hoping that I would be called by telephone to identify a song. I no sooner had wished until my wish came true. The telephone rang and it was Edward calling me and asking if I could guess the Mystery Melody, which I did without hesitating. My prize was a plane trip to New York with all expenses paid. Oh! I was so happy because I knew I would have a chance to visit the class of 1950.

I boarded a plane at Baer Field, Fort Wayne, and to my surprise the pilot was Bob Kuhn who was very efficient. It took just four hours to fly to New York, and this being my first trip to New York I lost no time in touring the city. I hailed a taxi and the driver was Clara Rose Gribler who chattered about her boy friends all the way out to the zoo. Here I began looking at all the different animals. From the zoo I felt an urge to see some excitement. I was informed that there was a very good show a few blocks away so I decided to take it in. One of the main features was a high wire act; with no high wires. Peggy Clouse was the wire walker who really held the audience spellbound. But the next act is what gave me the surprise of my life when out danced Gene Baker and Norma Lee Smith singing the 12th Street Rag. I was enjoying the program so well that I decided to stay for the midnight follies. The torch singer was none other than Patty Lee singing "Slipping Around".

Then to put the final touch on the follies the famous tap dancer Bill Marbaugh really stole the show. I then went straight to the hotel, exhausted from my days' experience. As I stepped into the elevator there was Esther Schumm an elevator girl. She told me that in her spare time she sang duets with Margaret Truman. I asked her where I could find Susie Cowan and she said, "Why, yes, Susie is a private secretary in a Home for Bachelor girls. She also gives advice to the lovelorn in her spare time."

The next morning I decided to take in the circus there. The main feature was Bonnie Brasher the lion tamer. She does quite well considering the fact that the lions are only three weeks old. Another old classmate, Phil Hileman is known as the fat-man. He also sharpens the gorillas teeth between acts. After seeing such horrifying acts I felt very much in need of a large dinner. After wandering through the streets for several blocks I saw a sign that read, "Fuzzy's Funhouse" which by the way is the name of a restaurant owned by Eugene Bienz. He studied the art of cooking for three years in France. While eating I noticed Martha Schaffner who is employed as the head waitress. After leaving the restaurant I bought a newspaper. The headlines read of a great basketball team who won their game last night by the score of 5 to 3. After reading closely I discovered Gerald Hoblet is their coach. The next page was a large advertisement of "Caffee's Reducing Plan". It was invented by none other than Dr. Don Caffee. Don said that if it had not been for this reducing plan he wouldn't have the wonderful physique he has now. As I was reading the paper I stumbled over a baby carriage. This startled me and as I gathered my wits I realized that the mother was the former Letta Walls. And as I looked inside I saw a set of twins. Letta says she is very happy taking care of her hubby and nine children. Letta also told me of Ruth Kreischer's Swanky Dress Shop. I was on my way to Ruth's dress shop when I heard a lot of chat and chatter and looking around there was Professor Vernie Luginbill with his college students. I crowded my way toward him but only managed to wave at him. Such an important man has little time for visiting.

Before getting on my plane for Fort Wayne I realized there was one more place I must visit and that was Ned Byer's Famous Skunk Farm at the edge of the city. His entrance fee was a "scent", and you could stay as long as you like. I only stayed a very short time and then went to the airport to get on my plane. While boarding the plane a very familiar family followed me up the gang plank. Here was the class sponsor of 1950, Bob Games with six of his own boys, Bob, John, Larry, Jack, Mike, and George. They had been playing professional basketball at Madison Square Gardens. We visited and talked all the way back to Fort Wayne. I got out of the plane and was soon on my way back home to Willshire.

Senior Class Will

We, the Senior Class of 1950, being of thick skulls and scrawny brains, do hereby publish, and declare this to be our last insane plea and fleeting breath of our dear old days at Willshire High.

First, we will the right to push the windows up and down, as you please to the Juniors, for one year only.

Second, we will all the gum, candy, and ice cream wrappers to the Sophomores for any of their future scrap drives.

Third, the Freshmen the second row of seats in the study hall, if they hold together that long.

Fourth, we as a class will the summer to our dear teachers to recuperate from the past nerve-wracking experience.

The following individual bequests were made by the members of the Senior Class.

I, Gene Baker, will my seat in the study hall to anyone who will put it back together. The register to someone who will carry a pair of pliers to regulate it. My curly hair to Elmer Schumm, and all of the pencil stubs I borrowed from Paul Fetters and Wanda Edwards.

I, Gene Bienz, will my ability to go to town at noon without getting detention to Harold Griffith, my ability to sleep in American Problems class to Pat Black. My nicknames to Jim Fisher, and my love for Decatur to Elmer Schumm.

I, Ned Byer, will all the gum under my seat to Bob Shoup, my ability to keep clear of detention and to skip school to Ed Debolt, my seat in the study hall and the knob on the radiator to Keith Ross, my big shoes to Jim Fisher and the blind cords in the study hall to any professional "knotter".

I, Bonnie Brasher, will my seat in the assembly hall to Beverly Clouse, to have and to hold for one year only. My luck to graduate in the year 1950, my ability to type and to get along with Mr. Compton, and my liking for black natural curly hair to Martha Painter. Also I will my position as editor of the Willscribe to Wanda Edwards, and my ability to put it out one month early to the staff.

I, Don Caffee, will all the wrecks to Jim Fisher, my seat in the study hall to whoever wants it and the collected junk to whoever will take it. I would will my wit to somebody, if I could pick out two half wits to will it to.

I, Peggy Jo Clouse, will my ability to get out of study hall for some reason or other to Beverly Clouse, the raised windows in study hall to Robert Fonner, my art work to Patty Miller and my chemistry apron for one year only, to anyone who will clean it up.

I, Susie Cowan, do hereby will my meager appetite to Phyllis Kessler, my cheerleading suit to Bertha Grunden, to have and to hold for one year only, my straight A's in chemistry to Kenny Miller and my excess height to Gene Painter.

I, Clare Rose Gribler, will my typing books and papers to Martha Painter, my ability to get in arguments to Phyllis Gunsett, my likeness for sports to Trolus Frank, and my seat in the Study Hall to Phyllis Kessler.

I, Gerald Hoblet, will my big feet to Harold Griffith, my height to Fred Schumm, my number 5 Basketball suit to Bob Fonner, my seat beside the radiator to any cold-blooded member of the Junior Class and my radiator knob to Keith Ross.

I, Edward Huston, will my seat in the study hall to Robert Fonner, my ability to steer clear of the opposite sex to Jim Fisher, the dried up bubble gum under my seat to Harold Griffith, my gym shoes to whoever has feet large enough to fit them, and to Kenneth Miller the window and radiator to keep them well groomed, my shortness to Elmer Schumm, and to Patty Miller my ability to stay out of the office only when called to appear there.

I, Ruth Kreischer, will my seat in the study hall to Patty Minx, my habit of taking my shoes off to Phyllis Gunsett, my shortness to Bill Baker, my ability to sleep in study hall to Phyllis Kessler.

I, Robert Kuhn, will all the gum under my seat in the study hall to Floyd Weddle, the ability to keep clear of detention to Robert Fonner, and my ability to throw chalk to Gene Painter.

I, Patty Lee, will my shortness to Donna Allen, my temper to Phyllis Kessler, my ability to get along with the teachers to Beverly Clouse, and my seat in the study hall to have and hold for one year only to Martha Painter.

I, Vern Luginbill, will my cold seat in the study hall to Keith Ross, my crew hair cuts to William Baker, my position on the Basketball and Baseball team to Gene Painter, my pencils I swiped to Pat Black, and my ability to get along with the opposite sex to Jim Fisher.

I, Bill Marbaugh, will my ability not to get hurt to Jim Fisher, my butch hair cut to Keith Ross, and the gum that I chewed which is under my desk to Bob Shoup. Also my ability not to be bashful to William Baker. My seat in the study hall to Elmer Schumm.

I, Martha Schaffner, will my seat in the study hall to Fred Schumm , for one year only, my position as librarian the first period in the morning to someone who knows nothing about books, and anything I leave behind in my locker, No. 118 to Trolus Frank.

I, Norma Lee Smith, do hereby will my height to Patty Miller, my weight to Bertha Grunden, my long hair to Patty Minx and I willingly will my love for Macbeth in Literature to Jim Fisher. My love for talking in Home Economics to Phyllis Kessler, and my sleepiness in American Problems to Gene Painter. Last of all I will my brutally marked grade card to Esther Midlam to love and cherish for one year only.

I, Letta Walls, will the last seat in the last row in the study hall to Rosemary Weinman to have and hold for one year only, my sliding specks to Martha Painter and my ability to get along with teachers to Bob Fonner.

We, the Seniors of 50, illness caused from overworked brains, do hereby elect Sir Keith Eugene Ross, sole executer of our last will and testament.

Signed, sealed, and delivered, as their last will and testament, the Senior Class in the presence of each other have subscribed our names hereto as witnesses in this year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and fifty. (1950).

WITNESS: Robert W Games

WITNESS: Russell Griffith

Flash! ! ! Willshire won the county tournament. Yeah, Willshire! We defeated York 52 to 32 to advance to the semi-finals. We surprised our foes, the Convoy Indians, with the overwhelming victory 78 to 37. We defeated last year's champs, Hoaglin Jackson, in the final round 66 to 39.

Flash! ! ! Flash! ! ! Celina tournament opened by Willshire defeating Ft. Recovery 53 to 48 on February 29. We then beat Hoaglin Jackson the second time in a week, Friday nite, by a somewhat closer score of 42 to 36. That victory advanced us to the semi-finals where Minster caught us on an off night. The result, 47 to 36, brought to an abrupt end, this seasons basketball. We are proud of the fine team which Mr. Games so ably coached and also we take this opportunity to congratulate Vern Luginbill for receiving honorable mention in the state.
